A Ghostly Gluten-Free Tale

For Immediate Release

Tucson, Ariz. - October 14, 2010 – Ghosts, goblins and ghouls will soon emerge from graveyards as Halloween is almost here. Yummee Yummee knows holidays are difficult, especially for children, when you eat a gluten-free diet. Every little monster deserves gluten-free treats – cookies, muffins, crackers, or breads. Today’s video, “A Ghostly Gluten-Free Tale of Halloween Treats”, illustrates the flexibility and versatility of Yummee Yummee’s mixes – Cookiees and Dreamees. You can make the holidays less scary and enjoy good treats with our gluten-free baking mixes.

The Halloween video features our recipes and mixes. Crispiees support the haunted house and graveyard. Dreamees crackers create bats, leaves and moons for the Witches Brew, our version of homemade chili. Choco-Grahamees were used to build the haunted house. Using our Cookiees mix, Easy Cut Sugar Cookiees become gravestones, coffins, bats, black cats, ghosts, mummies, pumpkins, monsters, moons and skulls. It’s spooky stuff for Halloween treats covered with icing. But, these scary treats are great for lunches, too. Candy Apple Danish are a great start to the day – made with Dreamees mix. Dreamees also made the microwave pizzas, scarecrow and pumpkin; brownies; maple fudge blondies; and cornbread featured in the video. You can have a “ghostly gluten-free” Halloween!

Yummee Yummee gluten-free baking mixes range in price from $3.99 to $7.49 per single mix. Save 10% when you buy a sample pack of mixes. For $9.99, you may pick a mix with our Customer's Choice 2 pack. Additional information and the Halloween video can be found by using the following web links.
