

Dreamer Dog's
'Twas the Night Before Star Wars
December 2015

A Long Time Ago In A Galaxy Far, Far Away

'Twas the night before Star Wars, when all through the Net

Every fandog was blogging, even Boba Fett;

The costumes were pressed and stacked with great care,

In hopes that the movie soon would be there;

Dreamee Dog struggled with what costume to wear;

While visions of lightsabers buzzed in the air;

The Jawas were ready, and stormtroopers were marching,

It was time to settle in and wait for some movie watching,

While at Dreamee Dog's house there was a great flash,

All of a sudden the mountain of costumes fell with a crash.

Out crawled Dreamee Dog from under the great mess,

Covered in a robe and Princess Leia's white dress.

Looking around, there was the first person to be,

Why it was none other than Obi-Wan Kenobi,

On went the tunic and robe in a flash,

She grabbed a lightsaber, and ran to the mirror in a dash,

There was Dreamee Dog as a famous Jedi master,

Ah, but then she decided that she wanted her blaster.

Off went the Jedi robes, Dreamee Dog dressed in haste,

On went the shirt, the vest, and a good blaster at her waist:

Over to the mirror went Dreamee Dog delightfully happy!

Now, Han Solo, that look was quite snappy!

It was not to be, as it was all to no avail!

Now, Dreamee Dog started to wail!

She decided with certainty, "I want to be Kylo Ren!"

She flew in a hurry to her costume bin;

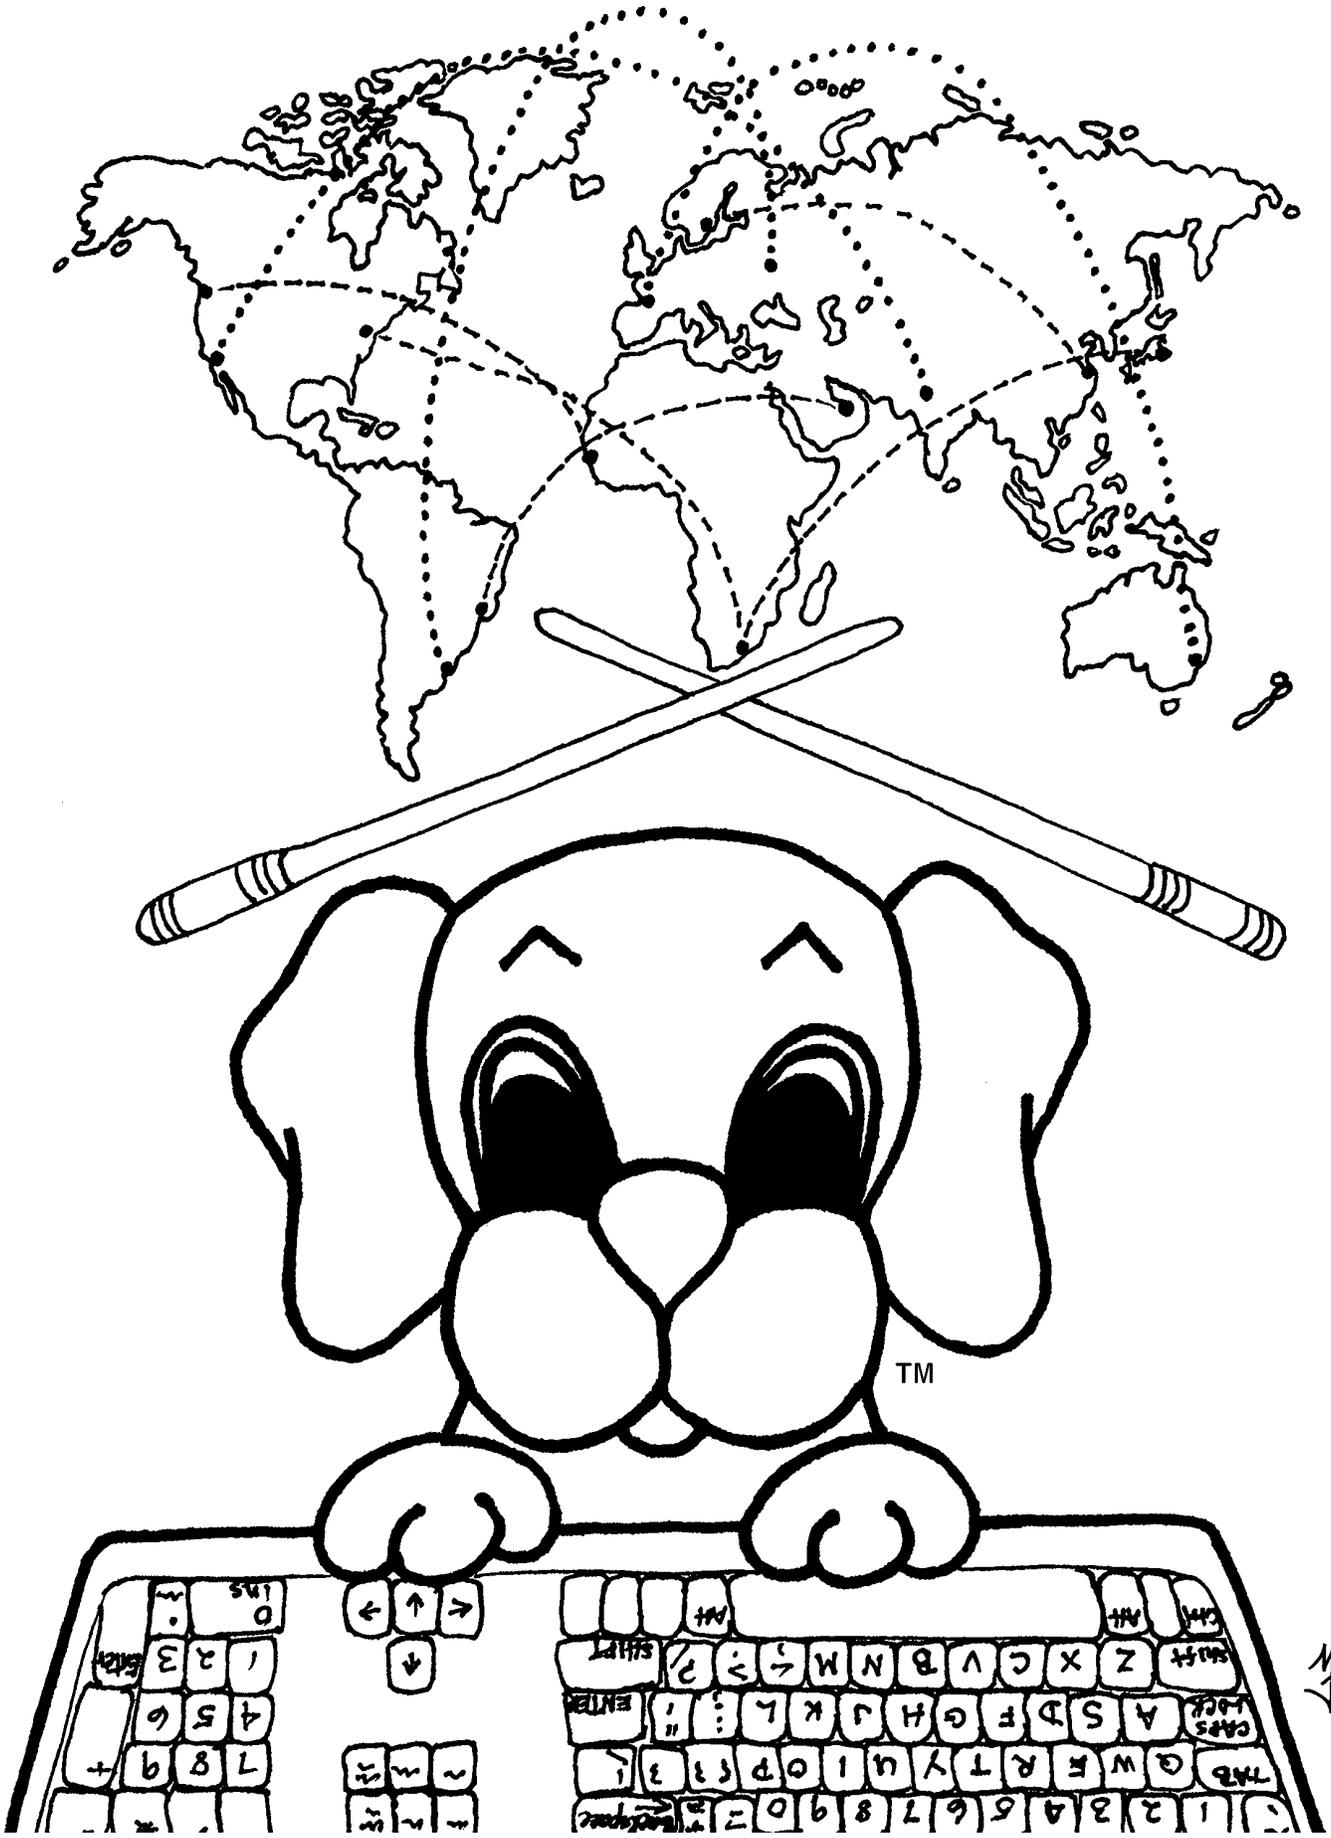

On went the black robe and fearsome face mask

With a crossguard lightsaber, she could take any Jedi to task-

"I am a good dog, so this will not do,"

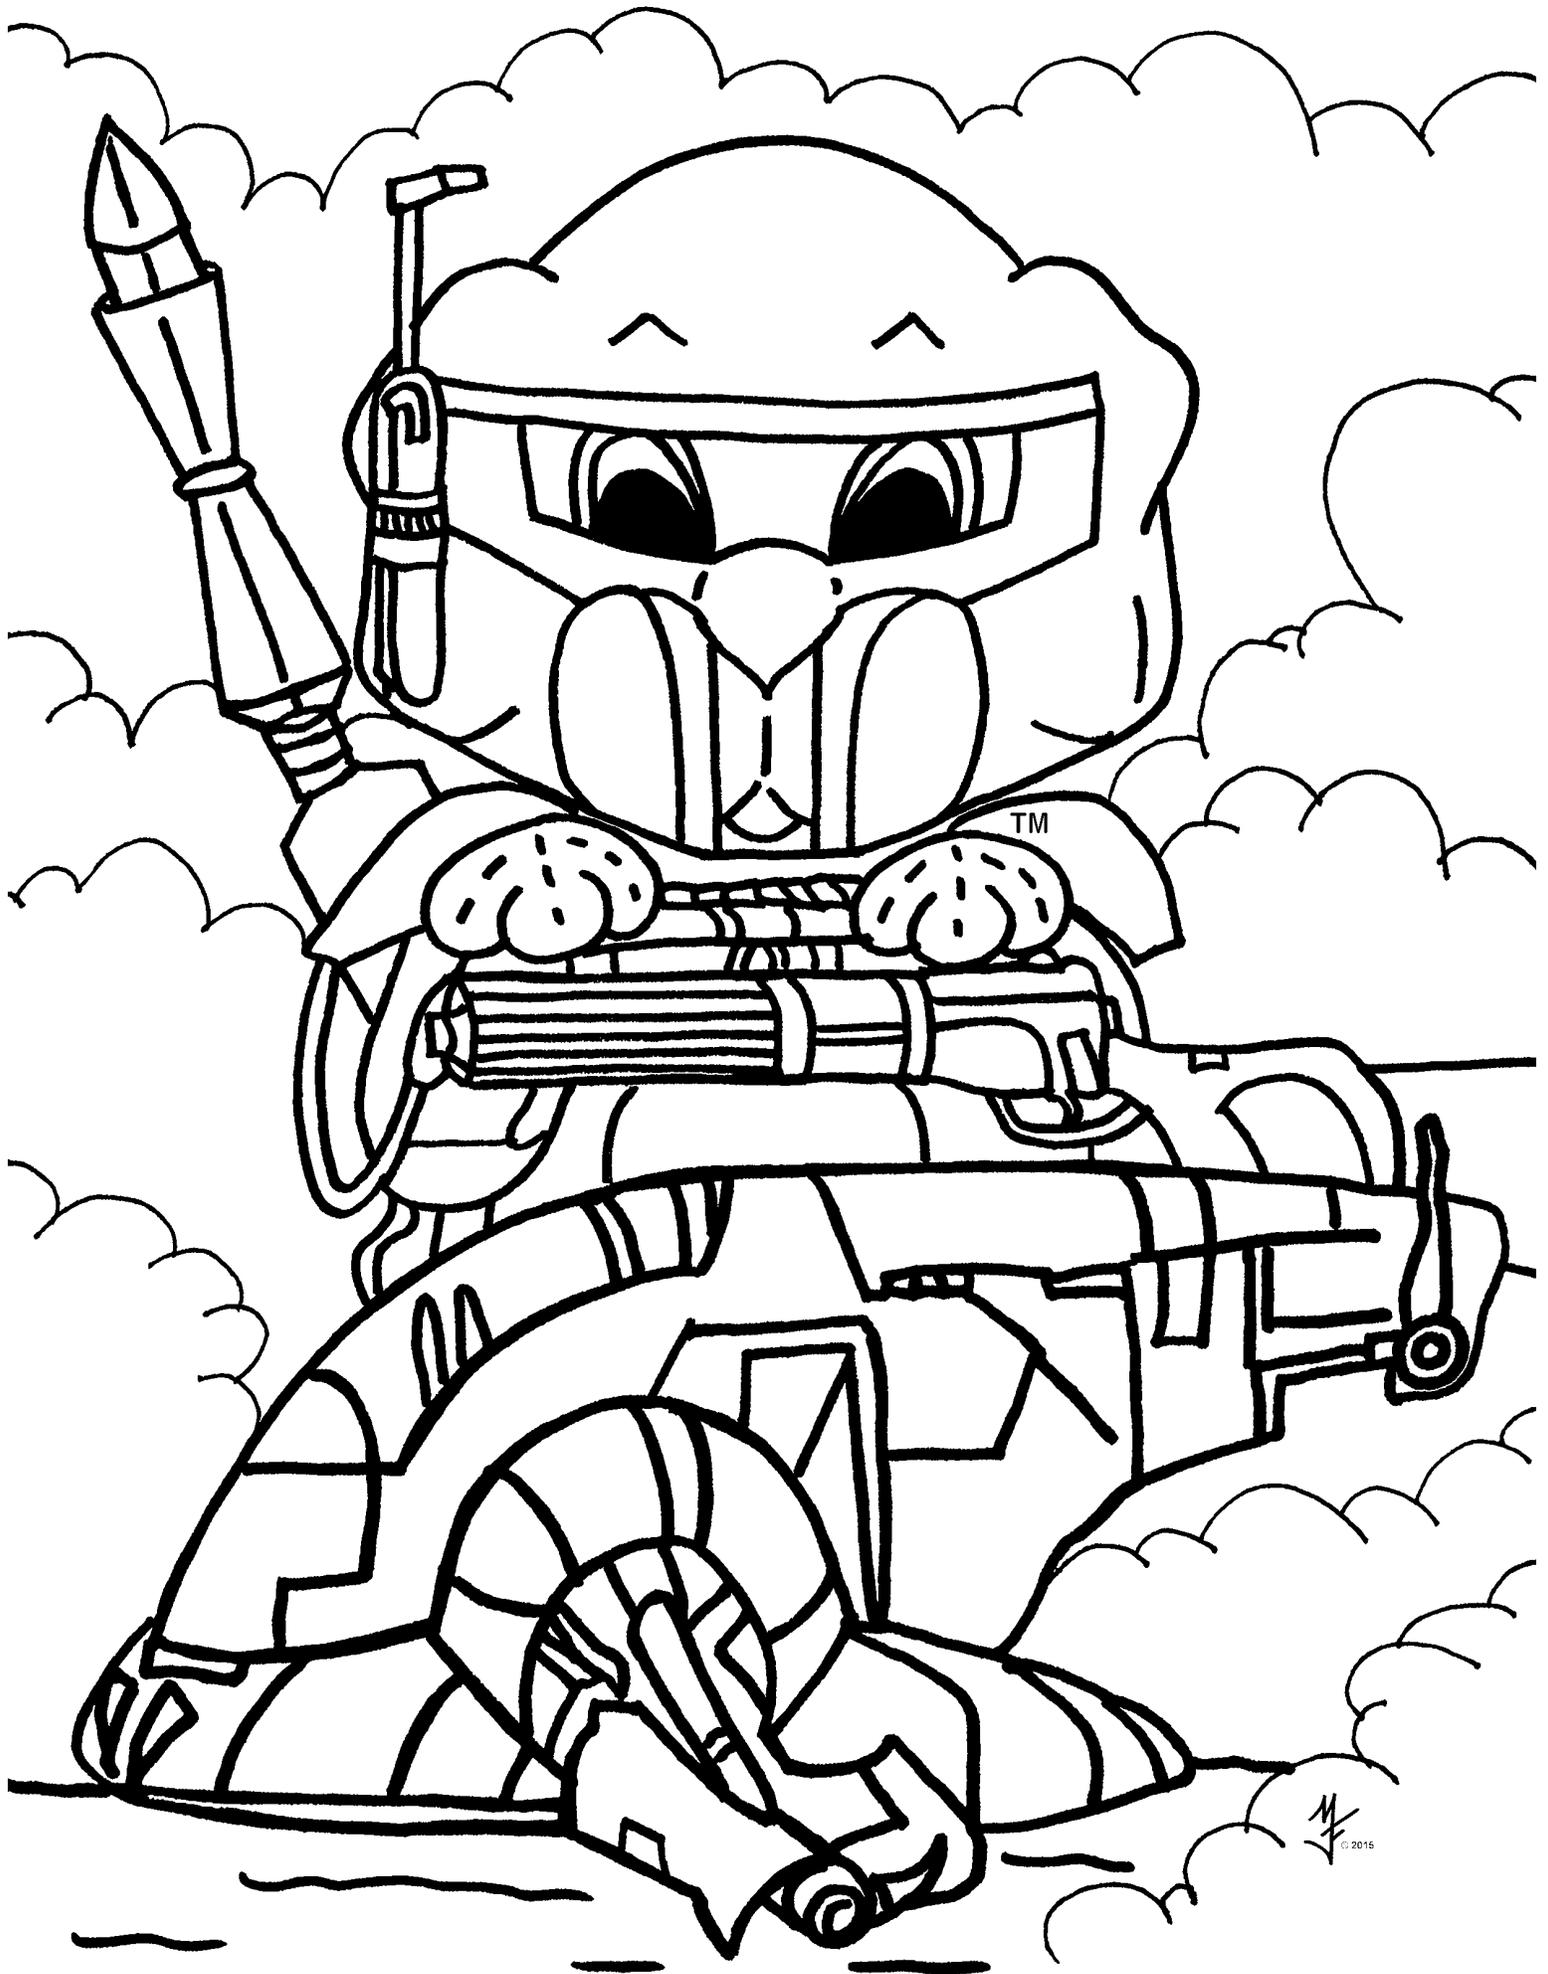

“Tis better to be quick, agile, noble, and true.”
“As Luke Skywalker, the empire I will fight,”
Dressed all in black, she was quite the sight.
Dreamee Dog thought for a minute or two,
“Oh, Darth Maul, I’d rather be you;”
She painted her face in crimson and jet black,
Grabbing a lightsaber, she threw a robe on her back.
Dreamee Dog as a Sith lord was very scary!
But, now she wanted to be something quite hairy!
An Ewok from Endor is the only thing that will do,
Dressed all in fur with a hood and a spear too;
A glance in the mirror, and an Ewok did not appear,
It wasn’t as planned, a giant Wookiee stood near;
Chewbacca was not what she wanted to be
Disappointed and sad, she roared like a Wookiee.
Grabbing her white dress, and pinning buns on her head,
She is a girl, so why not be Princess Leia instead;
It was quick as a wink, but now it was clear
Dressed in white, a Stormtrooper would bring fear;
If evil was what she wanted, then it was plain to see,
Darth Vader, the greatest of Sith lords, is who she should be,
All in black with a great helmet on her head,
She would easily fill that theater with dread;
Yoda was the answer to her quest, it was clear to her now
So patient and wise, this character was sure to wow.
As she dressed in a hurry, she became a most powerful Jedi knight -

“May the Force be with you, and the movie be out of sight!”
